

LYMPHOMA
CANADA

Robin Markowitz, CFRE

CEO

Lymphoma Canada

For twenty-five years, Robin has been entrenched in the non-profit, charitable sector, most recently as the National Director of Development for Osteoporosis Canada. She developed a comprehensive understanding of the needs of lymphoma patients in Canada during her eight-year tenure at The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society of Canada in the capacity of National Director of Development & Marketing. She has also held the positions of Regional Director, Ontario, of Kids Help Phone and Development Director of Second Harvest in Toronto.

Robin is a graduate of the University of Maryland, College Park. She received her designation as a CFRE (Certified Fundraising Professional) in 2001 and has recertified three times. She also holds a certificate in Public Relations from the University of Toronto and a certificate in Advanced Volunteer Management from Humber College.

An active volunteer, Robin currently sits on the Board of Directors at The Betel Seniors Centre.

An avid reader and a self-professed hot yoga addict, Robin also enjoys patronizing the arts with her husband Mitch.